1. INTRODUCTION

The promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000, as amended, (the "Act") gives third parties the right to approach private bodies to request information held by them, which is required in the exercise and/or protection of any rights.

On request, the private body may be obliged to release such information unless the Act expressly states that the records containing such information may or must not be released.

This manual informs requestors of procedural and other requirements which a request must meet as prescribed by the Act, and further incorporates or addresses the requirements of the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013 ("POPIA")

Dr. Bruce Grant runs a diverse chiropractic practice, he applies an integrative approach to patient care, working in conjunction with or referring to the appropriate healthcare practitioners to treat patients. Dr. Bruce Grant treats patients using a mixture of spinal corrective procedures, soft tissue and rehabilitative treatments; this addresses the underlying causes of injury or disease, using a systems-oriented approach and engaging both patient and practitioner in a therapeutic partnership.

He conducts his business in terms of the following legislation:

South Africa Revenue Service (SARS) legislation for purposes of tax returns, Guidelines of the Chiropractic Association of South Africa (CASA), Guidelines of The Allied Health Professions Council of South Africa (AHPCSA) and related legislation mentioned below.

The requester will be informed in writing whether access has been granted or denied. Dr. Bruce Grant shall, within 30 days of receipt of a request, decide whether to grant or decline a request and provide detailed feedback in this regard

6. PRESCRIBED FEES

The following applies to requests (other than personal requests). The Act provides for two types of fees:

- a request fee, which will be a standard fee, and an access fee, which must be calculated by considering reproduction costs,
- search and preparation time and cost, as well as postal costs where applicable.

6.1 A requestor is required to pay the prescribed fees as determined in section 22 (1) of the Act) before a request will be processed;

6.2 If the preparation of the record requested requires more than the prescribed hours (six), a deposit shall be paid (of not more than one third of the access fee which would be payable if the request were granted);

6.3 A requestor may lodge an application with a court against the tender/payment of the request fee and/or deposit;

6.4 The Information Officer or his/her Deputy shall withhold a record until the requester has paid the fee or fees as indicated.

6.5 The fee structure is available on the website of the SOUTH AFRICAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION at www.sahrc.org.za.
